

S de B f R gh

It is the policy of The University of Iowa that each student shall be guaranteed the following rights and freedoms; enumer academic, organizational, and disciplinary records without the express consent of the student or a court order.

7. The right to petition for changes in either academic or nonacademic regulations, procedures, or practices.