

Northwestern State University believes the free exchange of ideas is an essential part of a healthy university community.

Northwestern State University has right, in limited circumstances, to regulate registration of event, place and manner of public speech, assembly and demonstration.

should complete specified request for event approval. (form on next page) should apply at least 24-48 hours prior to the actual event date when possible and practical processing for non-student groups or groups outside the campus community may take up to 72 hours the Dean of Students makes every effort to approve applications quickly however applicants may not take action until an application is processed and approved.
the requested event cannot:
interfere with another approved event
interfere with University operations be scheduled during other major university events—as determined by Student Affairs

The person or organization applying will select only 1 spot.

:
Approved by Dean of Students or their designee
Peaceful
No harmful acts, destruction or defacement of property, physical assaults or threats thereof
May not display or threaten to use or display firearms, explosives or weapons of any type Amplification devices cannot be used in the Student Union Plaza
May not obstruct, disrupt, or attempt to force the cancellation of any event sponsored by the University or by any users authorized to use University facilities.
May not block ingress or egress to roadways, buildings, exterior patios or plazas or gathering places.
Speech cannot be projected into private areas or so to disrupt university classes or administrative functions

Individuals are subject to all sanctions in the NSU Student Code of Conduct.

Individuals are subject to all sanctioning under the local, state and federal laws.

Any individual or organization may publically demonstrate in a peaceful manner after attaining the permission of the Dean of Student Affairs or their designee at: email-coninef@nsula.edu ,Room 309 Student Union, NSU,