

BUREAU OF INDIAN EDUCATION
Washington, DC 20210-0001

05/15/2011

05/15/2011 09:29:11

05/15/2011

11/2011
National University Faculty

communications

8. I am pleased to provide you with this information regarding the Bureau of Indian Education's commitment to provide a safe and healthy work environment for all employees, including faculty and staff. The Bureau of Indian Education is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment for all employees, including faculty and staff. The Bureau of Indian Education is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment for all employees, including faculty and staff.

The Bureau of Indian Education is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment for all employees, including faculty and staff. The Bureau of Indian Education is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment for all employees, including faculty and staff.

in matters of importance. If you have any questions or would like further guidance, you may reach me at Tony Dearman, Director of the Bureau of Indian Education. If you have any questions or would like further guidance, you may reach me at Tony Dearman, Director of the Bureau of Indian Education.

Tony L. Dearman, Director
Bureau of Indian Education