Dear Mr. Kissel:

On behalf of California State University San Marcos, I am writing to confirm receipt of your letters dated October 28 and November 2, 2011. I assure you the university takes its responsibility to uphold the civil liberties and civil rights of our students very seriously. The Basis of Faculty Office is in the process of gathering information to determine the facts involved and will continue to communicate directly with our students as to the matter at hand.

Best regards,
